Democratic Legislators Listening Session, Friday, October 17

All,

Following up on my earlier email about an upcoming visit from two of our state legislators:

Mike Yin (D-Teton) and Karlee Provenza (D-Albany) will be coming to Worland on Friday, October 17, for a “Listening Session” with Big Horn, Washakie, and Hot Springs County voters in Worland at a location TBD. I am attaching the agenda they have sent for their upcoming first session.

I know they want the session to occur after “regular” working hours (my regular Friday working hours are, of course, 3 pm to 11 pm, but so be it), so I am anticipating at this time that the meeting will be at 6:00 or some time around then.

I will follow up with final info closer to the date, but wanted you all to have this on your calendars now. They will also be doing a session in Park County, which I am sure we are welcome to attend—that session will be September 25, 6:30pm to 8:30 pm, Grizzly Hall of the Cody Public Library.

Here for Good,

Erik
