SAVE THE DATE SEPTEMBER 26 CANDIDATES VISIT!

Speaking of strategizing—I am excited to announce that James Byrd, Wyoming's Democratic candidate for the US Senate, and Lisa Kinney, Wyoming's Democratic candidate for the US House, are coming to town!

They are traveling up through the Big Horn Basin, and we have planned to have them here on Saturday, September 26, time and place TBD. I will update you when we have concrete plans, but wanted to get this on your radars now, as I know many of you have already asked about how you can support these candidates.

Here's the information I currently have on how you can contact their campaigns:

I do have one extra Lisa Kinney sign up for grabs for whoever responds first

Hope to see you all on the 26th!
